2. It is presumed that the service of Sri R. Ramalingam Pillai as Additional First Class Magistrate in the Judicial Department will not count towards his probation in the category of Tahsildars as it is a post borne in the category of a service, which is different from the Madras Revenue Subordinate Service. However, the Board requests the favour of instructions in the matter.

Copy of letter from Sri A. Uttandaraman, I.A.S., Collector of Ramanathapuram Roc.A3.11021/51, dated 19.6.1951 to the Secretary, Board of Revenue, Madras.

Sri R. Ramalingam Pillai, formerly Deputy Tahsildar in this District was recruited by transfer as Additional First Class Magistrate, Virudhunagar. He has already been in the approved list of Tahsildar. In a few vacancies of Tahsildar, his juniors have been appointed without prejudice to his claim and he has been promoted to the cadre of Tahsildar from 2-5-1951 forenoon, the date on which his next junior joined duty as Tahsildar. I request instructions whether his services in the judicial department will count towards probation in the Revenue Subordinate Service viz., his service as Additional First ClassMagistrate towards probation as Tahsildar.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT

To A.S.

Even otherwise, his service as A.F.C.M. under the separation scheme in the new Judl. Dept. cannot be counted for produce as Tahr. in the M.R.S.S. as. the duties of the two posts are essentiallu differenet.

Please see pp 1-2 ante. Sri R. Ramalingam Pillai is a fully qualified candidates for the post of A.F.CM. in the Judicial Department. He is drawing more pay in that Dept. (Scale 200-10-300 plus spl. pay at 50-10-100) He may not therefore be willing to revert to the Revenue Dept. Voluntarily. He is not also likely to revert to the Rev. Dept. for want of a vacancy. As a matter of fact, his chanced of confirmation in the new Dept. are more bright than in the Rev. Dept. It does not therefore appear quite necessary to go into the question now whether service as A.F.C.M. in the Judl. Dept will count towards probation in the category of Tahr. in the M.R.S.S. The Board may perhaps be asked to state whether it has any objection to take up the issue when the individual actually reverts to the Rev. Department. Subject to orders, a draft memo. is submitted for approval. Pub(Sepn) & Pub(Serv)- may see before issue.

Refce in C.F. notes from p ante:- It is for bettering his own propsects that the candidate has gone over to the new judicial Dept, While so, he cannot have probationary ref. which as Tahr. on the M.R.S.S. also. If he wants his rights protected, he should revert to the Revenue Dept. and act as Tahr. The Bd. may be told straightway that its presumption is correct.

Public (Sepn) may see for acceptance.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

To A.S.

The notes from 1 above may be read Pub (Sepn.) have stated that, as an officer to on deputation, his right will be protected to the extent provided for in the relevant rules. Presumably the rule referred to by there is Gl.Rule 8 under that Rule, the absence of a member of a service from duty in such service, shall not, if he is otherwise fit, under his ineligible in his turn for re-appointment to a substantive or offg. vacancy in the class, category, grade or post in which he may be a probationer or appd. probationer. Sri Ramalingam Pillai, who was promoted to the category of Tahr. with effect from 2.5.51, will, on reversion to Rev. Dept, be appointed as Tahsildar. But on his return he should satisfactorily complete the p eriod of probation in the category of Tahr. vide Gl.Rule 8) He cannot therefore count his service as A.F.C.M. in the Judl. Dept. towards probation in the category of Tahr. The Bd. may be told straightway that its presumption is correct. Subject to orders, a draft memo is submitted for approval. Pub(Ser.) may see again before issue.
